

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, July 21. 1722.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by the Reverend Dr. Hutchinson, and John Bagnold, Esqs Alderman of Derby, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Derby.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby.

Great S I R,

THE rude and insolent Treatment which your Majesty hath met with ever since your Accession to the Throne, from a restless and ungovernable Faction, raiseth an Ambition in us to give as many repeated Assurances of our true Faith and Allegiance, as they do of their Disloyalty and Perfidiousness to your Royal Person and Government.

We cannot without Horror reflect upon the amazing Conduct of those, who after they have recognized your Majesty's Right to the Crown of these Realms, by the most solemn and deliberate Oaths, do all they can to advance the Cause of a Popish Pretender, whose Title they have, in as strong Terms as Words can express, disclaimed, renounced, and abjured.

The many Stories that have of late been spread, (equally void of Decency and Truth) to asperse your Majesty's Administration, together with the open Insults that have been offer'd to several who have adhered firm to your Majesty's Interest, that is, to the true Interest of their Country, made us apprehensive that a Storm was gathering, which we hope now will soon be blown over, and end in the Confusion of none but those that raised it, since they are defeated and disappointed of their usual Resource from Foreign Aid and Assistance.

We are so sensible of our Happiness in that excellent Establishment we at present enjoy both in Church and State, and which we gratefully acknowledge (under God) to be owing to your Majesty's Vigilance and Protection, that we abhor the Principles of all those who are given to Change; wishing for nothing more, than that your Majesty, after a long and prosperous Reign over us, may transmit the Crown you wear, (together with those Princely Virtues, which render you so agreeably qualify'd to rule over a free People) to the next immediate Heir, and that it may continue in the same Protestant Line to all future Generations.

As we had the Honour, by your Majesty's Leave, to enter into a voluntary Association, at the breaking out of the late Rebellion, to preserve the Peace of this Borough and County; so we shall be always ready, (in case any are so hardy to raise new Commotions) to serve your Majesty to the utmost of our Power, by acting in such Manner as his Grace the Lord-Lieutenant of the County shall direct and command.

In Testimony whereof, we have subscribed our Names, and caused the common Seal of our said Borough to be hereunto affixed, the 7th Day of June, in the Eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Ratisbon, July 16. It is reported, that the Evangelical Body will consent to have M. de Rech recalled from the Palatinate, provided the Emperor will fix a Term to procure Justice to the Protestants, and will send his Mandates to that Effect, not to the Elector Palatine only, but to all the Popish Princes of the Empire; and that the Commissaries his Imperial Majesty offers to send into their Dominions, be composed one half of Protestants and one half Papists, conformably to the Laws and Constitutions of the Empire. Nevertheless, 'tis said, that M. de Rech is returned to Heidelberg, and has been very much threatened upon Account of his staying there longer. The Elector Palatine's Memorial in Justification of his Conduct concerning redressing the Protestants Grievances in his Dominions, will not yet be published these six Weeks, at which the Ministers of the Evangelical Body shew great Dissatisfaction. The laboured Union between the Lutherans and Reformed, still meets with great Difficulties from the Ecclesiasticks in Saxony; and 'tis almost despair'd ever bringing them off their Obstinacy on that Head, at least, there is no Likelihood of their coming to an Union in the present Juncture.

Berlin, July 18. The King of Prussia set out from hence the 15th Instant for Konigsberg, and designs to continue there till the End of this Month. Colonel Platen, the Duke of Holstein's Minister, having received his Master's Instructions to return home, took the usual Methods to obtain an Audience of Leave, by addressing himself to that Purpose to the Ministers, as also twice by Letters to the King. No Answer being returned to him from any Quarter, determined him to approach to his Majesty one Morning upon the Parade, to give him a verbal Notification of his being recalled, and at the same time, humbly to desire his Majesty to grant him Re-credentials in the usual Form. I know it well, said the King, that you are recalled; you may depart when you think fit; Sir, Farewel. The Colonel did not expect a quick Dispatch of that sort, and waited upon the Chief Minister of State to have an Eclaircissement on this Head, who among other Reasons gave this for a principal one, the Protestation which the Duke had caused to be made at the Imperial Court against the delivering up of Stettin. In short, M. Platen was obliged to leave his Post, and set out to join his Master at Moscow without obtaining Letters of Re-credential, or any others. The Monks of the Convent of Hadersleben have elected a new Abbot, of whom the Prussian Regency is well satisfied; the said Monks having conformed in all Points to what his Majesty's Commissaries requested of them concerning that Election.

Hambourg, July 21. The Danish Court expect the Arrival of the two Princes, Brothers of her Royal Highness the Princess Sophia Magdalena, and extraordinary Preparations are making for their Reception. The King and Queen of Denmark take the Air frequently in going to their several Palaces, they dine sometimes at Copenhagen, go from thence to Supper in the Garden at Rosenborg, and afterwards set out from thence to lie at Fredericksbourg. The 17th Instant the whole Court diverted themselves on the Water in the Haven of Neuenholm, where a new Man of War of 84 Guns was launched, called the Anna Sophia. Their Majesties went afterwards on board the Pomern Frigate, and were magnificently entertained there by the Chamberlain M. Gabel. Four Merchant Ships richly laden from Spain passed the Sound on their Voyage to Stockholm.

Hague,

Hague, July 24. Count Staremberg returned hither the 22d Instant from Amsterdam, but the Wind still continuing contrary, he purposes not to embark on board the Yacht at Helvoetsluis till it proves fair; in the mean time he amuses himself with visiting the neighbouring Towns. The Receiver-General is at this Instant under strict Examination before the Council of State, but 'tis probable his Affair will not be decided very soon. Advices are received here from Berlin, that the Conferences between the King of Prussia's Deputies and those of the young Prince of Nassau, for adjusting the Differences relating to the Inheritance of the late King William of Glorious Memory, are broke off without coming to an Agreement, of which his Prussian Majesty has caused the Reasons to be signified to this State, offering to continue the Negotiations here.
